

12 October 2023

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I write to you in recommendation of Ms. Hannah Beaman for the Harvard Extension School.

I had the honor of teaching Hannah in my WRIT 491: Senior Capstone course at Liberty University in the spring of 2023. She was one of the most impressive students I've had the privilege to work with.

As her English professor, I saw firsthand Hannah's commitment and enthusiasm toward her studies. Her keen insights and analyses in class discussions showcased her critical thinking skills and strong understanding of the craft of writing and her role as a writer in a diverse world. Notably, Hannah's final thesis project—a beautifully-written, imaginative, and absorbing novel inspired by Norse and Judaic mythology—displayed her strong writing skills and understanding of rhetorical and narrative strategies—voice, imagery, structure, and tone.

Throughout the course, Hannah demonstrated a strong work ethic and a focused, academic performance, and because of her studiousness, critical thinking skills, and effective communication skills—all of which were evident in her senior capstone project, contributions to discussion board forums, and weekly assignments—she finished at the top of her class.

Overall, Hannah is a responsible, diligent, and disciplined young woman, and I believe her intelligence, integrity, and writing skills qualify her as an excellent addition to your institution. I have no doubt that Hannah will continue to find success in her academic and professional pursuits.

Please accept my high recommendation of this talented student.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'J. Morgan', with a stylized, cursive script.

Justin K. Morgan

Assistant Professor of English and SME for ENGL 202 and WRIT 491

College of Arts and Sciences

434-906-6431

jkmorgan2@liberty.edu

LIBERTY UNIVERSITY

Training Champions for Christ since 1971