NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL IS NOTICE TO AGENT
NOTICE TO AGENT IS NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL

A principal is liable for the acts of its agent when the principal gives express or apparent authority for the agent to bind the principal.

Apparent authority of an agent exists "where a principal had, by his voluntary act, placed an agent in such a situation that a person of ordinary prudence conversant with business usages and the nature of the particular business is justified in assuming that such agent has authority to perform a particular act and deals with the agent upon that assumption, the principal is estopped as against such third person from denying the agent's authority: he will not be permitted to prove that the agent's authority was, in fact, less extensive than that with which he was clothed." People make themselves holy and prepare themselves for their garden rituals. They go into the garden and devour pork, disgusting things, and mice. "They will come to an end at the same time," declares Yahweh.

For the purpose of clarity the entire Levitical dietary law is provided below

Leviticus 11 Living Bible

Then Yahweh said to Moses and Aaron,

²⁻³ “Tell the people of Israel that the animals which may be used for food include any animal with cloven hooves which chews its cud. ⁴⁻⁷ This means that the following may not be eaten:

The camel (it chews the cud but does not have cloven hooves);

The coney, or rock badger (because although it chews the cud, it does not have cloven hooves);

The hare (Rabbit family) (because although it chews the cud, it does not have cloven hooves);

The swine (because although it has cloven hooves, it does not chew the cud).

⁸ You may not eat their meat or even touch their dead bodies; they are forbidden foods for you.

⁹ “As to fish, you may eat whatever has fins and scales, whether taken from rivers or from the sea; ¹⁰ but all other water creatures are strictly forbidden to you. ¹¹ You mustn’t eat their meat or even touch their dead bodies. ¹² I’ll repeat it again—any water creature that does not have fins or scales is forbidden to you.

²⁰ “No insects may be eaten, ²¹⁻²² with the exception of those that jump; locusts of all varieties—ordinary locusts, bald locusts, crickets, and grasshoppers—may be eaten. ²³ All insects that fly and walk or crawl are forbidden to you.

²⁴ “Anyone touching their dead bodies shall be defiled until the evening ²⁵ and must wash his clothes immediately. He must also quarantine himself until nightfall, as being ceremonially defiled.

²⁶ “You are also defiled by touching any animal with only semiparted hoofs, or any animal that does not chew the cud. ²⁷ Any animal that walks on paws is forbidden to you as food. Anyone touching the dead body of such an animal shall be defiled until evening. ²⁸ Anyone carrying away the carcass shall wash his clothes and be ceremonially defiled until evening; for it is forbidden to you.

29-30 “These are the forbidden small animals which scurry about your feet or crawl upon the ground: the mole, the rat, the great lizard, the gecko, the mouse, the lizard, the snail, the chameleon.

³¹ Anyone touching their dead bodies shall be defiled until evening, ³² and anything upon which the carcass falls shall be defiled—any article of wood, or of clothing, a rug, or a sack; anything it touches must be put into water and is defiled until evening. After that it may be used again. ³³ If it falls into a pottery bowl, anything in the bowl is defiled, and you shall smash the bowl. ³⁴ If the water used to cleanse the defiled article touches any food, all of it is defiled. Any drink which is in the defiled bowl is also contaminated.

³⁵ “If the dead body of such an animal touches any clay oven, it is defiled and must be smashed.

³⁶ If the body falls into a spring or cistern where there is water, that water is not defiled; yet anyone who pulls out the carcass is defiled. ³⁷ And if the carcass touches grain to be sown in the field, it is not contaminated; ³⁸ but if the seeds are wet and the carcass falls upon it, the seed is defiled.

⁴⁴ “I am Yahweh your God. Keep yourselves pure concerning these things, and be holy, for I am holy; therefore do not defile yourselves by touching any of these things that crawl upon the earth.

⁴⁵ For I am Yahweh who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. You must therefore be holy, for I am holy.” ⁴⁶ These are the laws concerning animals, birds, and whatever swims in the water or crawls upon the ground. ⁴⁷ These are the distinctions between what is ceremonially clean and may be eaten, and what is ceremonially defiled and may not be eaten, among all animal life upon the earth.

All of the above is not the entirety of the Laws and guidelines given to the Hebrew Israelite Covenanted Nation; there are several Holy Scriptures documented where certain behavior is grounds for being cut-off from Yahweh and one's people.

Genesis 17th Chapter 17-19

¹⁷ Abraham bowed facedown on the ground [^L fell on his face] and laughed. He said to himself [thought; ^L said in his heart], “Can a man have a child when he is a hundred years old? Can Sarah give birth to a child when she is ninety?” ¹⁸ Then Abraham said to Yah, “Please let Ishmael be the son you promised [^L live before you].”
