April, 2022

Please join us for a Healing Service at 7 pm on Wednesday, March 30th. A healing service gives us a designated time to come before God to seek healing for physical, emotional, relational and spiritual distresses, as well as the healing of memories which continue to hurt us. Everyone is in need of healing in some way. You are also invited to come just out of curiosity. Do not come expecting to be healed by my touch. Come instead to be supported in your life story. This service is meant to be a quiet, respectful time in prayer and worship.

You will be asked to come forward to light a candle, IF you so choose. This is a voluntary act only.

We will specifically pray for the people of Ukraine who are in need of our prayers for strength and healing.

SOMETHING TO SHARE

Pastor Bonnie

Each month, I hope to share something in Chapel Bells that caught my eye and/or my heart as I prepared for a Sunday worship. As I was putting together ideas for our Healing Service on March 30 at 7 pm, I found this article insightful. John Edgerton is a UCC writer and Lead Pastor at First United Church of Oak Park, Illinois.

What Not to Say

by John Edgerton | published on Mar 8, 2022

Blessed is the one whom God corrects; so do not despise the discipline of the Almighty. For God wounds but also binds up; God injures, but those same hands also heal. – Job 5:17-18 (NIV)

Oh, Eliphaz the Temanite, you really stuck your foot in it this time. In the beginning of the book of Job, a righteous person loses everything that mattered and winds up miserable. Now here comes Eliphaz—supposedly Job’s friend—saying there must be an explanation. “You must have done something wrong. If you confess, then God will give you back everything.”

Yikes.

Blaming the victim while also offering empty promises that the irreparable will be repaired? Eliphaz is dead wrong. God even says so.

Bad things do, in fact, happen to good people. There is no simple moral arithmetic that explains why some people get all the breaks and others have nothing but heartbreak. Living a moral life is not a divine insurance policy to fend off disaster. That’s not how fate and fortune work, I’m sorry to say. Don’t take my word for it, though. That is the whole argument of the book of Job.

Here is what God promises in the face of heartbreak and loss, here is the truth about God revealed in the book of Job: God listens to our heartbreak.

God heard every word that Job had to say. When Job fumed with anger, God was listening. When Job cried out in grief and despair, God was listening. When Job did his utmost to blaspheme against God, hurt God’s feelings and throw God’s promises right back in the divine countenance, God was listening.

Greeters Needed!

Thank you for Supporting the Chili Dinner

After taking two years off because of Covid-19, on February 27th we brought back our Chili Dinner and boy was it a great turn out! Thank you to everyone that came out to buy chili. Thank you to all those that helped both before the event with marketing and creating new signs as well as at the event where so many members offered to help serve food, wash dishes, clear tables and run to gos. It may be work but we all had smiles on our faces and enjoyed spending the afternoon together raising money for the churches general fund. And thank you for everyone bringing their food donations to make this event so successful. This year's chili dinner raised over $1,500.00.

March Council Meeting Notes

The council needs some volunteers for the following activities. Please contact Pastor Bonnie or Charmaine Duehring if you can help.

- 2 persons are needed to attend the UCC Annual Conference Meeting at Green Lake on Saturday, June 11 . Pastor Bonnie will be attending on June 9 and 10. Registration fees will be paid by the church.
- The pastor's office is in great need of painting. If you love to paint and are good at it, this job could be for you. The church will furnish the paint.
- Volunteers are needed to run the projector during some services. If you know how and are willing, please let us know so a list can be compiled. The projector isn't used every week, so you would be contacted in advance if you were needed for a Sunday.
- Be sure to mark your calendar for Church Cleanup Day on Saturday, April 30. A list of jobs to be done is being made. If you would like to add something to the list, let us know.

If you ever have anything that you think the council should be discussing, we are happy to add it to our monthly agenda. We usually meet the second week of each month, although the day may vary.

Women's Guild

At the March meeting, Pastor Bonnie led a Lenten Bible study of Psalm 51:1A – 17, David asking God for mercy for his sins and for the evil he committed. We had an interesting discussion about the meaning of these words and how they pertain to us in our 21st century lives.

The April meeting will begin a new Guild lunch format. Rather than a potluck, we will each bring our own brown bag lunch and one member will furnish a dessert for all. Isabel will be pâtissier for the April meeting, and Louann will lead a devotional. We will also have pictures and tales of adventure from April and Jack Truman's trip to Egypt.

Coffee and conversation on Sunday, April 3, will be pie day. Guild members will bake homemade pies as a thank you to the congregation for all your support of the Guild—volunteering at our events, flipping brats, late night cookie baking, etc. etc. We appreciate it sooo much!

Two new small tables were purchased to replace our ancient wobbly card tables, and we voted to replace both kitchen stoves using a gift to the Guild from the Schuppel family in memory of Phyllis Schuppel.

The Guild is planning to celebrate members' 50th wedding anniversaries which fell during shutdown and during calendar year 2022 sometime this summer. We do not have records of marriage dates, so if you have a 50th anniversary in that timeframe, please contact Carol at caroy4@gmail.com or 262-628-0656. Thanks for letting us know, as we do not want to miss anyone.

Proceeds from the penny jar will be donated to St. Paul's donation to Ukraine Relief Fund.

The April Guild meeting will be held at noon on Thursday, April 21. All St. Paul's women are invited to bring a brown bag lunch and join us.
