Cemetery Masses - 2025

ANNUAL CEMETERY MASSES

Both Flatrock Memorial Gardens, St. Michael's Cemetery, in Flatrock and St. Agnes' Cemetery in Pouch Cove are owned and operated by the NEA Memorial Gardens Inc.

The majority of those resting at both cemeteries are of the Roman Catholic Faith. To honor this and to recognize our history while also looking to the future, we continue to celebrate Cemetery Mass in the month of July at each cemetery. Mass is presided over by the Parish Priest for the Holy Trinity Parish currently based in the Holy Trinity Church, Torbay.

MASSES FOR 2025 were held on....

Wednesday, July 23, 2025, St. Agnes' Cemetery, Pouch Cove

Thursday, July 24, 2025, Flatrock Memorial Gardens - St. Michael's Cemetery, Flatrock

Thanks to all who attended and supported our Cemetery Masses both in Pouch Cove and Flatrock last month. Your generous support enables us to continue to improve both cemeteries.

A very special thank you to all the volunteers who gave their time to ensure both cemeteries were beautiful.

A special thank you to Father Paul for the beautiful Mass.

Collections received:

- St. Agnes' Cemetery $3,872.00
- St. Michael's Cemetery $3,900.00

Who should also Thank those for helping at the Cemetery Mass

- Joe Power who setup and provided the Sound System with help from Billy Connors, who supplied the generator and Edward Everson who assisted
- Jack and Bryan Connors were at Gate 1
- Catherine and Greg Wade were at Gate 2
- Dave & Tom Parsons directed the Parking
- Carla McGrath for the music & hymns
- Eucharistic Ministers, Jeannie Kehoe, Evelyn Kehoe and Donna Connors.
- Readers - Betty Evans and Pauline Martin.

And Thank You

- To all who worked to enhance their Family Plot, this helped to make our Cemetery perfect. Volunteers who continued to provide care & many people did as you asked in extending care/mowing beyond their plots, etc.
And finally a Thank You to anyone who in anyway helped us in any way.

All monetary donations collected at each Cemetery Mass will be used towards the care and upkeep of the Cemetery where the Mass was held unless otherwise indicated by the donor.
