The Dog Boarding Company acknowledges and agrees to adhere to the feeding schedule and dietary requirements specified by the Dog Owner. The dog(s)' medications will be administered according to the Dog Owner's explicit instructions.

DOG OWNER RESPONSIBILITIES

The Dog Owner should ensure that their dog(s) have the appropriate ID tags and collars for identification.

The Dog Owner should ensure the health of their dog(s) before check-in. The dog(s) should be free from contagious diseases for at least 7 days prior to their stay, and the dog(s)' vaccinations including but not limited to distemper, adenovirus, parvovirus, parainfluenza, and leptospirosis (often referred to as DAPP+L, Please note this vaccination is often a 3 year but the Lepto part of the vaccine must be updated yearly) bordetella (protects against kennel cough), rabies, and all other ailments as required by local statute.

In addition, flea/tick prevention & heartworm/dewormer prevention should be current. Please note, most preventions are required to be administered every 30 days. Please ask Dog Boarding Company directly if you have any questions on this.

It is the Dog Owner's responsibility to ensure all dogs' vaccinations and preventions are up to date, if not, this contract acts as a wavier releasing the Dog Boarding Company from liability arising from issues resulting in, omitted or expired vaccinations, out of date preventions, or false reporting. Proper documentation of current vaccinations or recent titer reports shall be provided or released to the Dog Boarding Company prior to drop off.

The Dog Owner will provide clear and detailed instructions for any required medications or special dietary needs, and any medications should be properly labeled. Any known dog behavioral issues or aggression triggers must be disclosed to the Dog Boarding Company. This information is essential for the safety of both the dog and boarding staff.

You understand that you are expected to provide your dog with sufficient food for the entire duration of his or her stay at the Dog Boarding Company.

If you do not provide sufficient food, the Dog Boarding Company may purchase and administer food of its choosing at a fee of $5 per meal plus the cost of any food purchased if necessary.

Drop offs or pick ups later than 7:30p will need to drop off or pick up the following day.

Dog Owner cooperation helps keep things running smoothly and safely for everyone.

(A quick text whenever Dog Owner is on their way for drop off or pick up is always appreciated so Dog Boarding Company can be ready for them/get them ready to go for you.)

The Dog Owner understands that dogs are animals and that participation in boarding activities involves inherent risks. While Dog Boarding Company takes reasonable precautions to promote the safety and wellbeing of all dogs in its care, injuries, illnesses, altercations, stress-related conditions, and other unforeseen events may occur despite appropriate supervision and management.

Intact Dogs / Females in Heat

Dog Boarding Company accepts both altered and unaltered dogs; however, it is extremely important that Dog Owner disclose if their dog is not spayed or neutered prior to boarding. This information allows Dog Boarding Company to make appropriate management, housing, and playgroup arrangements to ensure the safety and well-being of all dogs in its care.

Dog Owner understands that accommodations for intact dogs may vary depending on the other dogs currently boarding and the overall group dynamic at the time of the stay. For safety reasons, Dog Boarding Company reserves the right to modify participation in group play, provide separate play times, utilize separate housing arrangements, or otherwise limit interactions with other dogs as deemed necessary.

Female dogs that are currently in heat are not eligible for boarding. Dog Owner agrees to notify Dog Boarding Company immediately if their dog enters heat prior to a scheduled stay.

If a female dog enters heat during her boarding stay, Dog Boarding Company reserves the right to require immediate pickup or make alternative arrangements as deemed necessary for the safety and welfare of all dogs in its care. Any additional costs associated with managing a dog that enters heat during its stay may be the responsibility of the Dog Owner.

Failure to disclose a dog's reproductive status or a known heat cycle may result in refusal of services, termination of boarding services, or additional fees.
