An Inspector Calls is a powerful engaging detective drama. It is considered by many to be one of the classic thrillers of mid-20th century English theatre. This suspenseful masterpiece finds a peaceful dinner party at a prosperous British home shattered when an inspector arrives to investigate a young woman's death. Revelations shake the very foundations of this upper class family as they all come to realize that each of them had a hand in the girl's tragic undoing, prompting an examination of conscience and responsibility.
