Art show Guidelines

- All art works must be original works, created by the artist
- All artists must provide a $500 nonrefundable booth fee, prior to acceptance.
- The artist shall not presell any of their art work that will be displayed at the art show
- The Committee reserves the right to reject any entries not complying with either size requirements or subject matter
- Reproductions or copies of any original artwork will not be accepted
- All artists are required to stay at their designated booth during sale hours
- The Committee is not responsible for any travel and accommodations for either the artist or their artwork
- All artists are responsible for the negotiation and final sale of any art work with prospective customers
- Committee will not collect any commissions on any art works sold at the show
- Artists must make their own arrangements for insuring their pieces if desired. Artists will be required to sign a waiver before the show confirming their acceptance of this provision.

Art Show Information

The art show is located in the main ballroom of the Bragg Creek Community center. The center provides optimal light and décor for displaying fine art.

All artists will receive an 8' X 15' draped booth, one table and two chairs.
