

Let Music Inspire: The Villages Music Society (VMS) Annual Showcase

Sunday, February 15, 2026 • 2:30 p.m. • Cribari Auditorium

Admission is free, thanks to a very generous contribution by the Village Voices, whose gift ensures that everyone can enjoy this inspiring event together. Doors open at 2:00 pm.

Get ready for a performance that celebrates the joy, harmony, and creativity of music in all its forms! The VMS proudly presents its Annual Showcase, themed “Let Music Inspire.”

This year’s showcase will feature performances by the Villages Concert Band, Piano Open Studio, the Village Voices, the Village Dancers, and the Handbell Ensemble—each adding its own sparkle to the show’s musical journey. Highlights include:

Villages Concert Band:

Performing three songs: Sobre las Olas (Over the Waves), Golden & Glenn Miller In Concert

Piano Open Studio:

Barbara Aguila, Larry Broderick, and Vera Johnston will entertain with three separate piano compositions.

Village Voices:

TBD

Village Dancers:

The Village Dancers will give you a preview of their upcoming Legends showcase. And perform a Waltz in collaboration with the Concert Band.

Handbell Ensemble:

TBD

Each group has been preparing something special - from stirring instrumentals and vibrant vocals to rhythmic movement and the shimmering tones of handbells. Together, they embody what it means to let music inspire—connecting hearts, sparking memories, and reminding us all of the beauty of shared creativity.

So mark your calendars and join us for an afternoon of unforgettable performances. The VMS Showcase is more than a concert—it’s a celebration of community, passion, and the power of music to lift us all.

Let music inspire—you won’t want to miss it!
