

Trail Training Day

Under the direct supervision of one of our professional trainer partners, your pup will embark on a customized hike designed to address specific training tactics while out on the trails. This may include anything from practicing leash training skills or learning how to properly meet and greet other pups in a highly stimulated environment. This includes a free consultation and proposal.

1 session	$250