DID YOU KNOW?
Southern Baptists plan to add 1.1 million net enrollment in Sunday School by the year 1985. Enrollment now is 7.4 million.

In 1980 the projection is that we added 95,000 to the enrollment. In Tennessee the enrollment (1979) was 521,750. We plan to add 84,525 or net 16.2% for a net enrollment of 606,275 by September 30, 1985.

1.5 million in Tennessee are lost. They are our responsibility under God. We can do it through our Sunday Schools. Laymen are ready for our leadership.

We'll be seeing two new faces around here pretty soon! On Thursday, July 30, Barry and Pat Wallace became the proud parents of a big baby boy. The new baby weighed 8 lbs. 15 oz. and was named Clint Allen. Then, on August 4, Tuesday, Lindsey Renee Henry made her way into the world. She weighed 7 lbs. 10 oz. and has made Bill and Linda very happy. Congratulations to both of these couples!!

Puppet Team Plans Program

The Baptist Student Union of Dyersburg State Community College has planned a busy summer schedule for its Puppet Team. During July this unique ministry will present puppet shows to the RoEllen Baptist Church, Gates Baptist Church, Hawthorne Baptist Church, the Reelfoot Rural Ministry, and the Ridgely Methodist Church. Puppets are used to convey the themes of faith in a way that is enjoyable yet serious in its message.

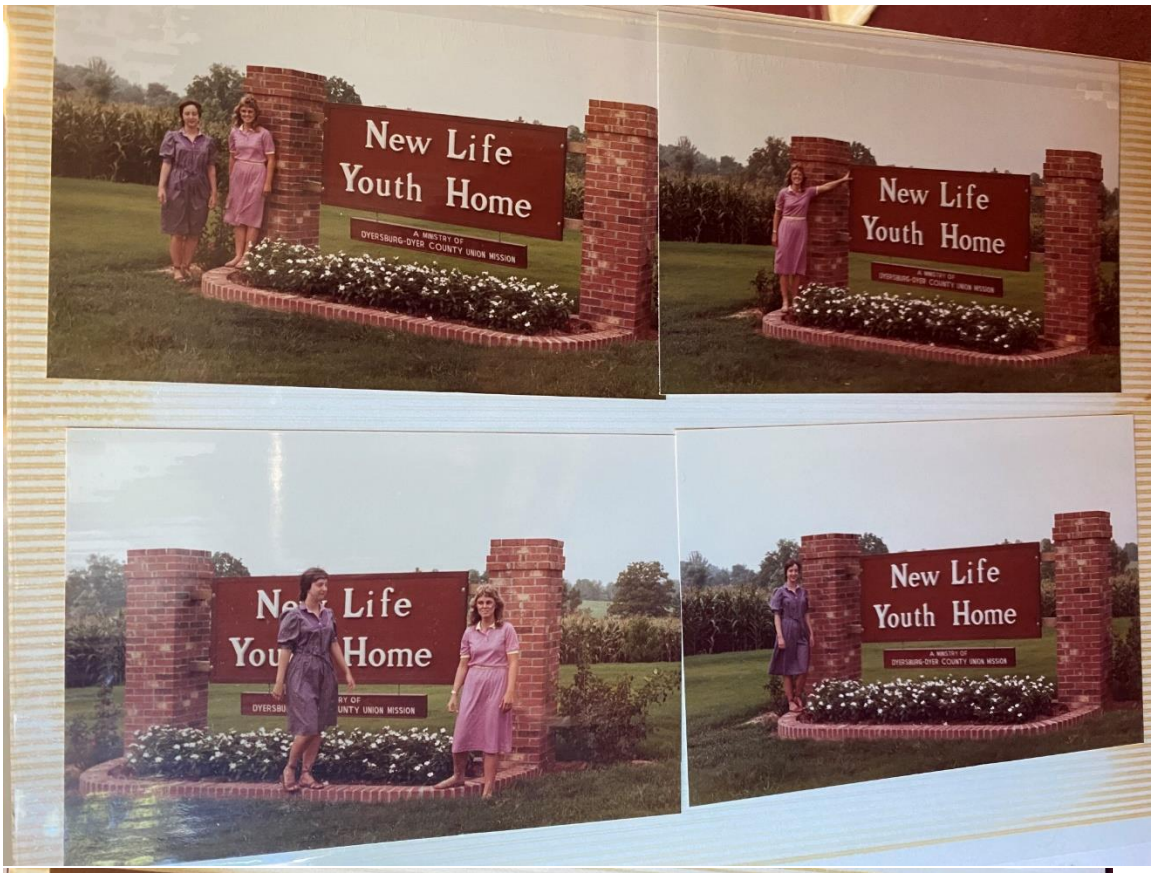

Dyersburg State students involved in the puppet ministry are Lesli Myers, Newbern; Michelle Davis, Churchton; Julie Whittle, Dyersburg; Paula Burroughs, Halls; Muhammed Hameed, Kuwait; Sharon Crichfield, Ripley; and Randall Runions, Dyersburg.

The Dyersburg State Baptist Student Union is directed by Stan and Cathy Cavness of Dyersburg is open to any student at Dyersburg State.

Dear Michelle,

Thank you for sending the copies of your skits to me. I really enjoyed the skit you did Monday night. I have passed the skits along to J.J., our Youth Minister, and I know he will use them and appreciate them.

I think you are doing a great job in our association, and we are blessed to have you with us. May God continue to bless your life and ministry. I hope you have a very special Christmas and a wonderful new year!

Dear Friends:

We would like to tell you how much we enjoyed your puppet program and appreciated your help with our Christmas Children's Programs. The puppets were just what was needed to make the program complete and the message they gave was very appropriate for the season.

We thank you for the time and energy required to present eight programs and wish you a joyous Christmas season. May God bless you as your work with students reaches out into the community.

If I can be of service to you, please feel free to call.

College, church to host BSU

Dyersburg, Tenn., Bureau

DYERSBURG, Tenn. — Dyersburg State Community College and First Baptist Church of Dyersburg will be hosts this weekend the annual state Baptist Student Union Convention, which is expected to draw 500 collegians.

The church-affiliated BSU organization, which is represented on many of the state's college campuses, convenes each year for a statewide conference. The group chose as its theme this year "All Campuses Touching Students."

The 1987 state meeting begins today and events are scheduled to conclude here Sunday night.

Scheduled activities include several speeches, seminars on religious practices, luncheons and prayer services.

Most of the activities are scheduled to take place at First Baptist Church.

The group also is planning to distribute religious tracts at local nursing homes, housing projects and the Dyer County Jail, said Danny Neely, spokesman for Dyersburg State's BSU organization.

BSU hosts 500 this weekend

The Baptist Student Union at Dyersburg State Community College and Dyersburg's First Baptist Church will be co-hosts this weekend to some 500 students from across the state.

The students will be attending the BSU Fall State Convention, said Michele Bogue, director of the local BSU.

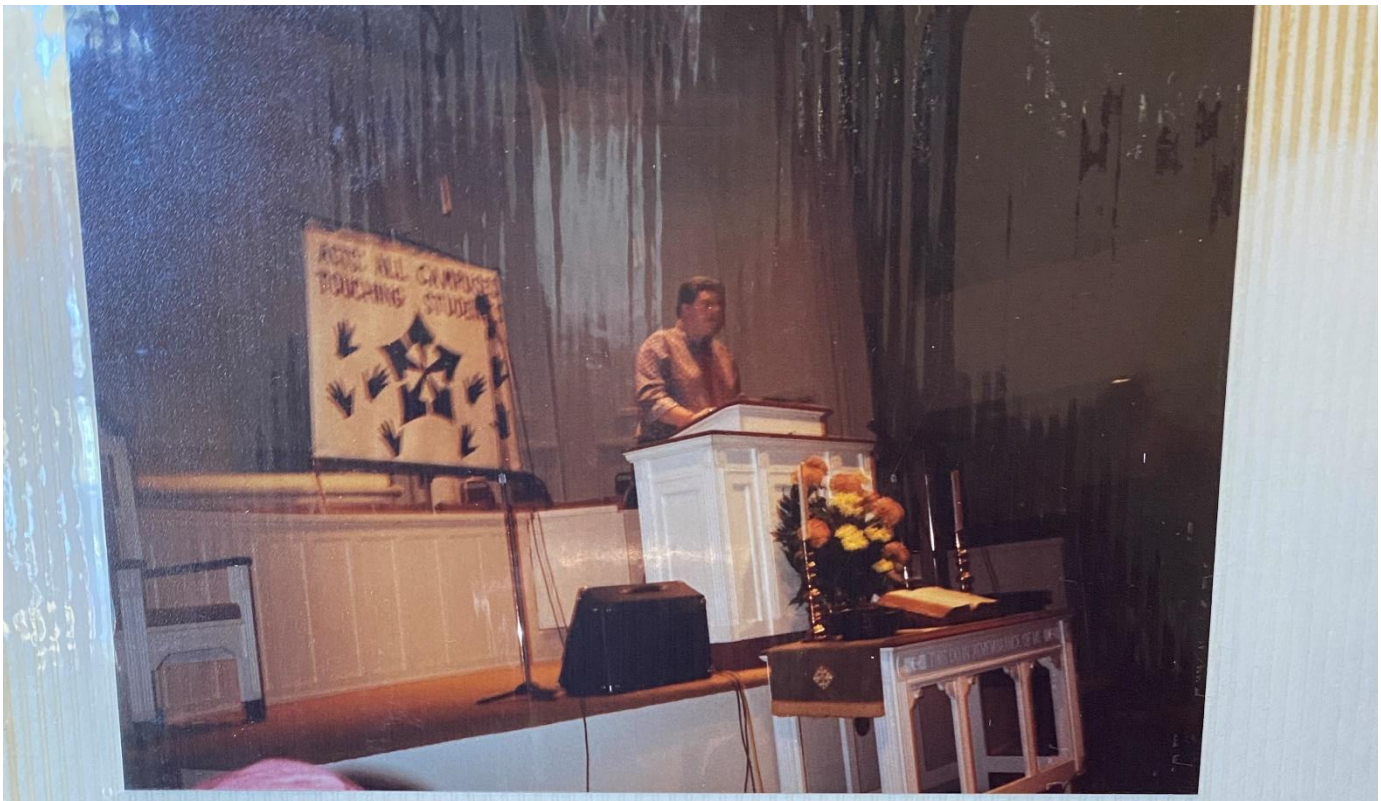

"ACTS - All Campuses Touching Students" is the convention's theme.

All activities will be held at the First Baptist Church building.

The activities begin Friday night with a message delivered at 8:30 p.m. by Bob Norman, of Clearview Baptist Church in Franklin, Tenn. Norman is scheduled to speak on "Power for Action."

Saturday's scheduled speaker is Dean Finley who will deliver a 9 a.m. talk on "Preparation for Action."

Mike Pennington, a missionary in Venezuela, will deliver Sunday's sermon at 9 a.m. His topic is "Crossing Barriers with the Gospel."
