

Stitching Operator - Corrugation Vertical

Department – Operation – Stitching

Reports to – Production Supervisor

Company - Packaging Company for Industrial goods

We are looking for full time stitching operators for the location of Pithampur for our organization. This position will report to Production Supervisor and this job has no supervisory responsibilities. A stitching operator performs the duties of set up, operate, or tend paper goods machines that perform a variety of functions, such as converting, sawing, corrugating, banding, wrapping, boxing, stitching, forming, or sealing paper or paperboard sheets into final products.

Major Duties Include:

- knowledge of machine operating to assemble wood/paper products while stitching
- Adjusts machine setup if necessary, and regulates machine speed
- check materials/parts for any quality defects and other fine details
- Controlling wastage including rejection
- follow all operating procedures as instructed by the supervisors
- following safety rules and regulations

Education and Other Qualification:

- 10th Pass
- ITI certificate holders preferable
- Good Command in Hindi Language
- Stitching experience in industrial goods companies is a plus
- Should be a able to do multi-tasking