

Darrin Townsend, Co-Managing Partner and Executive Coach, MBA

Senior consultant, executive coach and team developer at Business of People Consulting, Inc., Darrin Townsend influences executives and managers to achieve higher levels of business and career success through one-to-one coaching and group workshops.

Darrin joined Business of People Consulting, Inc. in 2002, bringing diverse experience from manufacturing and logistics industries. Through his consulting engagements, he has expertise serving business professionals in a multitude of sectors including health care, retail, hospitality, road construction, civil engineering, energy, manufacturing, staffing, publishing, law, agriculture, and non-profits. He has worked with global clients across North America, Europe and Asia.

Darrin is known for his direct but supportive style, and for leading clients to reach their highest potential through personal change. His services are often tailored to the unique needs of his C-Suite and executive clientele who benefit from his one-to-one coaching. For leaders desiring to build higher team performance, Darrin offers group coaching. He also teaches specialized workshops on interview skills, change management, and professional development.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Engineering from Purdue University, a Masters of Business Administration from The Ohio State University, and is a graduate of the Gestalt Institute of Central Ohio three-year post-graduate training for therapists and consultants.