

The Prolific Visions Restoration Foundation (PVRF) is guided by a dynamic and mission-driven Board of Directors whose leadership reflects deep community roots, lived experience, and an unwavering commitment to empowering women and girls.

Board member	Office and term	Current affiliations	Area of Expertise
Dr. Linda W. Deans	Board Chair; Term Expires: 2029	Former LCPS School Board Member; Retired School Superintendent; Educator	Provides governance leadership and educational expertise; advises on curriculum quality, age-appropriate learning, student outcomes, school relationships, and college-readiness activities.
Bishop Michelle C. Thomas	Board Director Term Expires: 2028	Founder, Loudoun Freedom Center; President, Loudoun Branch NAACP	Strengthens community partnerships, equity-centered outreach, participant recruitment, and connections with community and faith leaders serving Northern Virginia families.
Keivon Smith	Board Director Term Expires: 2029	Founder, Wins & Lessons Foundation; Violence Interrupter	Contributes youth-development, mentoring, participant-safety, and community-engagement expertise, particularly for young people navigating systemic barriers.
Robin Lawson Atcherson	Community Representative; Term Expires: 2028	Co-Founder, Crowned in Resilience Collective & Foundation	Supports the program's healing-centered leadership model, mental-wellness components, partnership development, and strategies that build resilience and sustained participant engagement.
Payton Arnett	Youth Representative; Term Expires: 2029	Tuskegee University Class of '27	Brings participant-centered youth insight; advises on program relevance, college and career exposure, communications, mentoring, and activities that appeal to girls and young women.

Collectively, PVRF's Board provides governance, fiscal oversight, strategic guidance, partnership development and program accountability for the organization. Board members support participant recruitment, mentor and speaker engagement, college and career connections, community visibility, resource development and review of program outcomes. Their expertise in education, youth development, equity, mental wellness and community leadership helps ensure that the program remains safe, culturally responsive, measurable and aligned with our core values & mission.