

The Prolific Visions Restoration Foundation (PVRF) is guided by a dynamic and mission-driven Board of Directors whose leadership reflects deep community roots, lived experience, and an unwavering commitment to empowering women and girls. Each member brings a unique perspective shaped by service, advocacy, and leadership across sectors including youth development, violence prevention, faith leadership, and community transformation.

Together, the Board provides strategic guidance and oversight to ensure that PVRF's work remains impactful, culturally responsive, and grounded in the realities of the communities we serve.

Keivon Smith
Founder, Wins & Lessons Foundation |
Violence Interrupter

Keivon Smith is a respected community leader and violence interrupter dedicated to supporting youth and families impacted by systemic barriers and community violence. As the Founder of the Wins & Lessons Foundation, he leads initiatives focused on mentorship, life skills development, and community healing. His work centers on transforming adversity into opportunity and equipping young people with the tools to build stronger futures.

Bishop Michelle C. Thomas
Founder, Loudoun Freedom Center |
President, Loudoun Branch NAACP

Bishop Michelle C. Thomas is a visionary leader, faith advocate, and trailblazer in community empowerment. She has dedicated her life to uplifting communities through faith, education, and service. As President of the Loudoun Branch of the NAACP, she continues to advance equity, justice, and opportunity for underserved populations. Her leadership reflects a deep commitment to restoration, advocacy, and transformative change.

Robin Lawson Atcherson
Co-Founder, Crowned In Resilience
Collective & Foundation

Robin Lawson Atcherson is a strategic leader and community advocate committed to empowering individuals and strengthening communities through resilience-based programming. As Co-Founder of the Crowned In Resilience Collective & Foundation, she leads initiatives that focus on leadership development, mental wellness, and community healing. Her work is rooted in creating sustainable pathways for growth, transformation, and long-term impact.

Payton Arnett
Founder, Dear Black Girl |
Founder, Melanin Elevations

Payton Arnett is an emerging leader and youth advocate dedicated to uplifting and empowering young women through confidence-building, storytelling, and community engagement. She creates platforms that amplify the voices and experiences of young women while promoting self-worth, leadership, and personal growth. She brings a vital youth perspective to PVRF's work, ensuring programs remain relevant, impactful, and responsive to the next generation.

PVRF's Board of Directors reflects the communities we serve, leaders who understand the challenges, strengths, and potential of women and girls. Their collective expertise and commitment ensure that PVRF continues to create meaningful pathways for healing, empowerment, and leadership.