Vermont's Favorite Watercolor Ski Art

Black Timber Forest Arts Studio

About StudioBTF

Rooted in a deep connection to nature, BTF is the watercolor studio of a Vermont native specializing in ski art, and the quiet beauty of seasonal landscapes. Working in a minimalist line and wash style and a carefully curated palette, each piece is designed to capture the mood of snow-covered trails, alpine light, and the stillness of mountain life. BTF's work invites you to pause and remember what it feels like to breathe in cold mountain air.
