

Solution Architect – Brussel & Remote

The role

For our client we are currently recruiting for a Solution Architect based on home in Belgium. This role is key to delivering Project and BAU requirements across the Architecture team.

As a Solution Architect, you'll be responsible for providing support to our Professional Services HR Cloud Delivery organization by applying technical expertise across multiple disciplines to understand clients' technical drivers and consult on the best approach to achieve. The ideal candidate works in a strategic manner and possesses the know-how to solve major technical challenges; provides thought leadership for technical innovation; and can drive efficiency within our company.

The Responsibilities

Project responsibilities

Lead Solution Architecture stream of HR & Payroll Cloud System engagements

Drive a fit for purpose Solution Architecture and Design aligned with wider architectural principles, policies and design

Work with engagement leads to manage design milestones, and ensure effective design governance around key design decisions

Support the Pre-Sales team, designing innovative solutions for customer problems

People responsibilities

*Contribute to people initiatives including recruiting, retaining and training
Architecture professionals*

The Requirements

Have a proven ability to be drive complex Solution Architecture engagements at a detailed level across a broad range of engagement and industries

Having a track record within a number of large scale SAP SuccessFactors HR and Payroll IT Cloud programmed, taking ownership of the Architecture and Design activities and outputs

Have experience in seeking the alignment of business and IT, operating across organizational and technology teams to drive common approaches, delivering sustainable, agile and re-usable solutions

Be comfortable working with senior management

Excellent spoken and written communication skills

We believes diversity should be visible, valued, and sustained throughout the organization. And we're committed to enabling an inclusive culture of belonging that engages all colleagues and grows the diversity of our talent to proudly represent the clients and communities we serve.

As an affirmative action employer, we adhere to the principles of equal employment opportunity in the workplace as defined in our diversity policy statement.

Authorization to work in the Employing Country

We offer you a competitive total rewards package, continuing education & training, and tremendous potential with a growing worldwide organization.

Hebben we je getriggerd met deze mooie opportuniteit? Contacteer ons snel via info@abc-recruitment.be