April makes a motion we vote them all in, Cricket second. All voted in. April will take their dues and patch money after the meeting.

Committee Reports:

Treasurer report- Cathy out, Aaron covered the finance report, Cricket motion to accept the FI report as written, seconded by Dutch . Accepted.

Vice Pres- Jill talked about meals and

Sgt. At Arms- Most Miles – Natvman with 2400 miles, Most Hours April Moss with 23 hours. Most Donated was $0. Members, signed in 37

Road Captain- Steve covered group riding tips, hand signals, they need to be passed back so the folks in the rear can see and be safe. Staggered formation was also covered.

If you don't have a patch, please be in the back. Or if you are inexperienced or haven't ridden with us before. If someone peels off and leaves a gap, the next person needs to move up, and fills the hole. Let's be safe and keep our formations.

Discussion – try to pick a position where you feel comfortable, inside or outside.

Dutch – a three wheel should they be at the back ? yes we'd like them to be at the back as it's safer.

Membership- paid members as of today 118 as of today.

Historian: Communications- pictures are posted on FB, and thank you for coming to Silver Rose it meant a lot to her.
