YOUNG ARTIST AND YOUTH

Our brand creates and publishes children's books, comics, greeting cards, youth t-shirts, and original cartoon features. Focusing on bringing life situations into the stories that engage children and allow them to have a positive entertaining experience while helping them overcome obstacles is some of the ways we connect.

Use\ing art and cartoons with a storyline of faith when visiting churches and schools helps the kids to understand they can be all that God has created them to be. Developing young minds to reach for their goals and use the talents God has given them is the subject that allows children to open their minds to big possibilities within art.

While promoting the stories and introducing the young audience to the characters, guiding them towards a career path in cartooning is part of the goal. Offering advice and guidance on the process of getting a creative start as an artist is part of the foundation behind our mission. We are not only helping businesses and entrepreneurs develop their brand, but building artist for the future will allow the growth of this industry to reside for centuries to come.
