To Whom It May Concern,

I write this letter in support of Valencia Benjamin as she pursues a position with the library. Valencia was a student of mine where I taught English at Selma High School.

Valencia has always been passionate about poetry and literature. As a student, she would read voraciously, balancing both the required reading from the class as well as enjoying titles of her own choosing. Her interest in English extends to writing as well. For many years, Valencia has been working to improve her craft, writing short stories, poetry and more. Of all my students, Valencia has been one of the most dedicated and ardent in continuing her study of English both formally and informally.

Additionally, Valencia has always demonstrated a quiet professionalism beyond that typically demonstrated by her peers. She is respectful, kind and compassionate to others. Without reservation, I offer my recommendation for Valencia Benjamin. She will be an asset to your organization.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (920)929-2868.

Respectfully,

Amy Jahn
