Brother St. Bernadette,

A Message from Our Grand Knight

Brother Knights, I recently had the opportunity to attend the viewing of a relic of Pope St. John Paul II in Morgan City. A long line of faithful people gathered to venerate the relic, and it was encouraging to see so many people come together publicly in faith.

I have also been reflecting on the life and witness of our Brother Knight, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen. Both of these men remind us of the tremendous impact one person can have when he chooses to live his Catholic faith openly and faithfully.

Most of us will never have a worldwide audience. But when I look around St. Bernadette, I see the same principle at work on a much more personal level. I see parishioners and Brother Knights quietly giving their time, talent, and treasure; helping families; supporting our priests and parish; serving those in need; and simply being there when someone needs a hand.

Those acts may never receive applause or recognition, but they matter. God sees them. Our ultimate goal is sainthood, and that journey is often made through the ordinary opportunities God gives us every day to serve Him by serving one another.

We saw a tremendous example of that service this past weekend with the St. Bernadette One-Day Men's Conference. An extraordinary amount of work went into making the conference successful, and our Council played a major role. From setup and registration to food, logistics, cleanup, and everything in between, Brother Knights stepped forward wherever they were needed. Nearly 150 men participated in the conference, and our Council can be proud of the part it played in making the day possible.

We also completed our annual Knights of Columbus recruiting drive this past weekend, and I am pleased that we were able to welcome several new members to our Council. Recruiting does not end with getting someone to join. Now it is up to us to welcome these new Brother Knights, get to know them, invite them to participate, and help them discover where their talents can best be used in service to the Church and our community.

Thank you as well to everyone who helped with our recent Pancake Breakfast for the families of children in our parish religious education program. Our crew of cooks and servers worked like a well-oiled machine and served more than 120 plates of pancakes and sausage. Once again, when there was work to be done, our Brother Knights answered the call.

Although we have already accomplished quite a bit this month, October isn't finished yet.

We still have two important opportunities ahead of us. Our Trunk-or-Treat on October 21 is always a wonderful opportunity to support our parish families and provide a safe and enjoyable evening for the children.

Then, on October 23, we will come together for a benefit lunch for one of our own Brother Knights. This is what fraternity is all about. When a Brother Knight and his family need us, we stand beside them. I hope we will once again see the tremendous participation and generosity that has become a hallmark of Council 7355.

Thank you for everything you do for our Council, our parish, and our community. The success of these events doesn't happen because of one or two people. It happens because Brother Knights continue to show up, pitch in, and serve.

May we continue to grow—not only in numbers, but in fraternity, faith, and service.

Vivat Jesus.
