

In The Mid[God]dle: Keys to keeping God in the middle of all you think, do and say.

Continued Study

Day 1- Find a Word

Choose a word to reflect on for the week. Maybe it's from a scripture you have read this week, a devotion, or simply search your Bible concordance for one word that speaks to you today. Some examples: sovereign, righteous, almighty, full, uphold, future, hope, love, ask

What is your word? _____

Go to your Bible index/reference section or search your favorite online Bible resource for all the scriptures containing the word you chose. Write out at least five of the verses in the chart below. We will go back and read them after we have compiled the list.

	Verse	Notes
1
2
3
4
5

Go back and read each of the five verses you found and make notes about each one. Pray God will open your mind to understand His Word and your heart will receive a fresh revelation from Him.

As you reflect on the scriptures that contain the word you chose, what do you think God wants you to walk away with today?

Day 2 Define

Choose 1-2 words from each of the verses you found in Day 1 and look up in the dictionary.
Write the words and their definitions out below.

1. _____ : _____
2. _____ : _____
3. _____ : _____
4. _____ : _____
5. _____ : _____
6. _____ : _____
7. _____ : _____
8. _____ : _____
9. _____ : _____
10. _____ : _____

Now that you have the definitions, reread the scriptures and replace the word with its definition. How did it take your understanding and the meaning of the scriptures to a new level?

Day 3 - Translate

Choose 2-3 different Bible translations and read the verses from Day 1 in each translation. You may want to use an online bible resource (biblegateway.com) to help you do this. Write them out in the space below.

Translation: _____	Translation: _____	Translation: _____
Verse:
Verse:
Verse:
Verse:
Verse:

4 – Seek Him & Reflect

Read Jeremiah 33:3

Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.

What does it say? _____

Read Luke 11:9

"So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

What does it say ? _____

Spend some time seeking God and His whispers. Reread the verses that you chose on Day 1 and choose one or two that you feel God wants you to dwell on seek His wisdom about. In prayer, ask Him to reveal something new to you today.

Use the space below to journal and write out any thoughts or revelations you have had this week. Don't get frustrated if nothing comes! Just keep it up. He WILL answer!