

City Tour Bogota + Monserate + Gold Museum

About

If you are in Bogota, this is the best option to know, learn and enjoy its beauty and history. This tour, accompanied by our expert guides, starts at Monserrate hill. Then you will go to the Gold Museum, where you will learn about the largest collection of gold pieces in the world and the relationship with the Muisca culture that also give rise to the legend of El Dorado. You will walk along Carrera Séptima and Plaza de Bolívar, where the Palace of Justice, the presidential palace, the mayor's office and the Primada Cathedral are located. Finally, we will arrive at the area called Chorro de Quevedo to learn about different traditions and taste a delicious Santafereno chocolate.
