

2007 CBA DIRECTORS AWARD

Presented to Clark Poelzer

Clark Poelzer is one of only 7 bowlers to have won a CBA tournament in 3 different decades winning in the 80's, 90's and 00's. He is the only bowler to be on an All Star Team in four different decades, '79-'80, '80-'81, '81-'82, '83-'84, '84-'85, '86-'87, '95-'96, '96-'97, '97-'98, '98-'99, '99-'00 and '06-'07. He was Bowler of the Year in '83-'84 & '95-'96. Clark has been a top CBA bowler for many years and still has the ability to compete with the best.

Clark was very instrumental in implementing the rules of the CBA. He also headed up the committee for the Hall of Fame. Compiling a point system where your performance in the CBA tournaments determined whether you would be inducted. Clark is always promoting bowlers to bowl the CBA and plays a big part in getting everything together for the Mike Light Jr CBA/MJBT Baker doubles tournament. He has been on the St Paul & State Hall of Fame Boards also.

The CBA would not be where it is today without Clark and all he has done.
Thank You Clark for everything

8 - CBA Titles

Midway Pro Bowl, August 1980; Earle Brown Lanes, August 1983; Midway Pro Bowl, August 1983; Minnehaha Lanes, July 1984; Ridgeview Lanes, Duluth, February 1985; Country Lanes, Duluth, March 1997; Drkulas (us open), February 1998; Garden Center Lanes, Alexandria, October 2005.

The CBA Directors award is given to the bowler who has been a superior performer over the years while giving their time and energy back to the game.