

2012 CBA HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Tom Corbett, Brooklyn Park, MN
Meritorious Service

Tom Corbett was only the 2nd CBA Tournament Director in the 42 year history of the organization. With his dedication to the game, he directed the CBA through the hard times and made sure he did what he could to keep the organization prestigious. When you won a CBA tournament you beat the best. The last CBA tournament Tom did not attend, either as a player or director, was April 1988.

With his “The Locker Guy” business, Tom added sponsorship money to the CBA Year End Shootout. Always making sure the organization had what it needed to succeed. As he is handing off the reigns to Jason Hanson, Tom is looking forward to competing again.

The CBA thanks Tom for his contribution to the sport of bowling, especially the CBA, and is proud to have him into our Hall of Fame.
