No One Cares for My Soul

Can anyone become any more discouraged than when one cries out "No one cares for my soul?" I hope that you are not in that condition and that you never will get that discouraged. But a number of good men and women have reached that point in life. Most suicide victims have come to that conclusion. They no longer believe that anyone will help or even can help them.

Even though David was a man after God's own heart, he reached the point of despair once and he cried out, "No one cares for my soul" (Psalm 142:4). This probably occurred when David was fleeing for his life from King Saul. Even though David knew he had been appointed to be the next king, he probably began to doubt it. The historical setting for this Psalm is recorded in I Samuel 19:19-23.

For a number of years David was a marked man. The king had a price on his head. David was forced to flee to the wilderness, to live in caves, and even to hide in the camp of the enemy of his people. Even there he had to pretend he was insane. "So he disguised his sanity before them, and acted insanely in their hands, and scribbled on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva run down into his beard" (I Samuel 21:13). In speaking about this period of time, he wrote, "They have hidden a trap for me. Look to the right and see; for there is no one who regards me; there is no escape for me" (Psalm 142:3-4).

What Can I Depend On?

What can I depend on, in this life on earth below?
Something I can lean on, during life's highs and lows.

All folks depend on their jobs, to pay the monthly bills.
But layoffs can unexpectedly occur, leaving financial ills.

A car is a mechanical machine, made of nuts and bolts galore,
But one day it will wear out and be dependable no more.

Even people can disappoint us, though well-meaning they may be.
However, if times get too tough, they will let you down you see.

But one thing I can depend on, that will remain true and pure,
Is God and His Holy Scriptures, a foundation steady, strong and sure.

Stand on the Rock the bible says, bold and loud and clear.
A dependable fortress against life's storms, knowing that heaven is near.

What can I depend on? The answer will always be,
To depend on our Heavenly Father, for grace and salvation free!

Oh come, let us sing to the LORD!
Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation.
(Psalm 95:1)

Knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation, for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.
(2 Peter 1:20-21)
