Key	Event Type	Suitable For	Description
FUN	Fun Race	Novice/ Development	Entry level race, no seed points, ideal for skiers new to racing, or looking for confidence and possible podiums as top level skiers do not attend this format of race. Usually 2 or 3 runs with only 1 run needed to be completed. Relaxed atmosphere fun day for all the family
CN	Club National	Development	Seeded race where skiers get to ski 3 runs of the same course, with the best of 1st or 2nd run to be combined with the 3rd run, which must be completed, with points awarded for every skier that finishes. Open to all skiers, lower seed point racers tend not to attend, so gives new skiers confidence.
GBR	FIS Race Format	Development/ Performance	This format is what you will see if you watch ski Sunday, Dave Ryding etc. 2 different courses with skiers having to complete the first course, before competing in the 2nd course. High standard of racers attend, so less experienced racers, could be phased, but also get to see the best of the best and aspire to be them in the future.
CHA	FIS Race Format	Performance	As GBR format, attendance restrictions may apply only allowing skiers with less than 250 seed points to attend

Snowsport England

Competing racers are required to hold a valid Snowsport England membership to enter races that are part of the competition calendar, while some race may allow entry without, having membership will cover racers with the necessary insurance. There are various membership levels, for most racers Blue or Red Compete would be best.

How to Enter

Entering races is relatively straight forward, but if you have any questions simply speak to the Swad Arrows committee. The majority of race organisers use the GbSKI.com portal.

The outdoor races listed will be located under the artificial race tab. Simply click on this and then scroll down to the race you wish to enter and click on the link.

Normally there will be a link to an invitation document explaining the format of the race, dates, location, how to enter, parking and even details on local hotels.

Once you click on the £ sign, this will take you to a payment link, which will vary by organiser.

You maybe required to create an online account, but most have simple instructions to follow - any issues, please ask.
