

Eric Erlacher

Eric "Double E" Erlacher, has spent the past twenty-three years as a Firefighter making the guys at the Firehouse dinner table laugh, so it was only a matter of time before he took his love of laughter to the stage.

Eric's candor, natural charm, high energy, and unique story telling ability, has allowed him to captivate audiences of all types. Combined with his extensive marketing expertise as a small business owner, and proven ability to move tickets, Eric has quickly earned the reputation of being one of Central Florida's rising comics to keep an eye on.

As a comedian, Eric remains dedicated to supporting the local comedy scene through his production company, Dirty Pelican Productions, through which he organizes the well-known Tuesday Night Comedy Showcase at the Moon Room in Melbourne, Florida, and the Beachside Retro Comedy Showcase in Satellite Beach, Florida.

When he's not performing comedy, Eric can be found spending quality time, and drawing further comedic inspiration from his loving wife and daughter.
