

Questions & Answers

Commonly asked questions.

Question: What is the youngest age a student can begin?

Dancers may begin at the age of 2. We offer classes to ages 2-18 years of age. Class placement is based on age of dancer by September 1 of the dance season.

Question: How much are tuition rates per month?

Our tuition is based on how many hours per week a dancer takes. For example, one hour once a week is $56 per month. Two hours a week is $115 per month for tuition until they reach unlimited.

Question: Do you offer an annual recital and what is the cost?

We have a recital the first Saturday after Memorial Day for all of our classes. Each student is invited to participate in our annual recital. The recital fee is a flat rate dependent on how many classes a dancer takes.

Question: What should a dancer wear to class?

We have a dress code including a black leotard for all classes. The bottoms are pink tights, black leggings, or black joggers depending on the class. Shoes are also dependent on the class style as they could wear ballet shoes, tap shoes, half soles, or tennis shoes.

Question: Do you offer a trial class to new students?

We offer a trial class to all new students at no cost. They may try a class by participating in class before enrolling in classes. These students may wear any athletic clothing they already own along with socks or tennis shoes.
