New applicants must have two members in good standing as sponsors. The applicant must have a current AMA card or proof of application for the AMA membership. Applications will only be available for pick up at the second meeting of each month. At the time an applicant receives an application he or she will receive a copy of the current Constitution and By-Laws upon which they are required to agree to read and understand before the application will be considered. All applications will be notarized. After completion of these requirements the applicant along with his (or her) sponsors shall bring the completed application to a regular club meeting and the applicant will then be interviewed and introduced to the club. After introduction is complete the Club will then vote to accept or decline the applicant as a prospective member. If the applicant is accepted the applicant must then attend four (4) Club meetings and two (2) Club functions within 90 days to complete the requirements to become a prospective member.

B. Prospective members will earn points, the same as a regular member, for participating in club workdays, events, socials and by attending meetings. When a membership opening becomes available, the Prospective Member that fulfills their requirements first, as outlined in Paragraph A of this Article (IV), will be the first one considered for membership. Together with their sponsors, they will be required to attend the regular meeting one meeting before voting is to take place so the club may interview them. Voting will be done by secret ballot. If one third of the members present cast blackballs then the applicant is denied membership into the Club at this time. A rejected applicant may reapply for membership if an opening is available after one-year waiting period. Membership voting night shall be the first meeting of each month at which no prospective members shall be present. (Prospectives as of the the date of this amendment will be dated according to their point standing at the time of ratification of this Amendment, i.e. the Highest Point Prospective will be dated January 1, 2016; the 2nd High Point Prospective will be dated February 1, 2016; the 3rd Hi Point Prospective will be dated March 1, 2016; the fourth High Point Prospective will be dated April 1, 2016; the 5th High Point Prospective will be dated May 1, 2016. Upon the last Prospective on the Roster as of ratification of this amendment, to be either voted in the Club as a regular Member or dropped from the Roster, this underlined section of the Amendment will be deleted.

C. Should a tie occur when an opening becomes available, the Prospective Member who completed their requirements for membership the earliest will be the Prospective voted on. If a tie still exists because the prospective members completed their requirements on the same date, then the tie will be broken by the flip of a coin at the meeting which is one meeting before voting will occur.

D. Approved applicants will be placed on a one-year probationary period. The sponsors of the new member will be responsible for him/her during the probation period. In the event the new member does not remain active, the Club may reconsider the persons continued membership.

E. The President at a regular meeting may designate Club functions, which will qualify applicants for membership.

F. No applicants name will be placed on the roll call until the Treasurer notifies the Secretary that the required fees have been paid.

G. The Secretary shall notify applicants by mail or Email of his/her acceptance or rejection.

H. All members and applicants upon submitting their application shall sign a written release to the Club, releasing it from any damages to person or property, or liabilities, which might arise from membership. Any applicant under the legal age shall have his/her application signed by his/her legal guardians and/or both parents and notarized.
