

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF COALITION FOR TRUE WORLD CHANGE (C4TWC)

The undersigned natural persons of the age of eighteen years or more, acting as Incorporators under the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation is COALITION FOR TRUE WORLD CHANGE (C4TWC) and its duration shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE II

The purposes for which this Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable and educational, and consist of the following:

(A) The specific and primary purposes are:

1) To promote community-wide interest, awareness, and concern for homeless and other economically distressed residents of the State of California and throughout the world,

2) Raise awareness and challenge the unconstitutionality of laws, policies and practices which impede on the economically distressed residents of the State of California and throughout the world from acquiring housing and/or shelter assistance.

3) To procure real estate for the development of permanent self-governed, earth-friendly experimental eco-villages created by sustainable 3D Rapid building technology to provide basic living, educational and career facilities, social environments, and related peer-based support services for otherwise homeless individuals, for the purpose of:

- a) Combating community deterioration and promoting the health, welfare, and safety of the citizens of the state.
- b) Lessening the burdens of the Government
- c) Defending human and civil rights secured by all citizens of the state,
- d) Improving quality of life living conditions and economic well-being and lessening prejudice, discrimination, sickness, poverty, pain, suffering and crime
- e) Fostering mutual interdependence of all people may be recognized, mutual aid among, by and for poor people may be facilitated.
- f) Fostering non-violence, self-determination, and cooperation that encourages economically distressed residents to pursue their life goals and aspirations, especially with regard to adequate housing and employment, with a sense of self-respect and dignity.
- g) Assisting them in the pursuit and actualization of their life goals and aspirations with regard to housing and work, and to enter into collaborative partnerships with certain private businesses, non-profit organizations and/or government agencies for such purposes.

h) Expanding the opportunities available to said residents to own, manage, and operate and develop worker-owned and democratically operated enterprises, and to assist said residents in developing entrepreneurial and management skills for the successful operation of such enterprises.

4) To do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attainment of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizations of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms, associations, trusts, institutions, foundations, or governmental agencies, bureaus, or departments.

(B) In furtherance, but not in limitation, of the foregoing charitable and educational purposes, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

1) To solicit, collect, and receive money and other assets, and to administer funds and contributions received by grant, gift, deed, or bequest, and otherwise to acquire money, securities, property, rights, and services of every kind and description, and to hold, invest, expend, contribute, use, sell or otherwise dispose of any of the aforementioned assets so acquired for the purposes above mentioned.

2) To borrow money and to make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue bonds, promissory notes, and other corporate obligations, for moneys borrowed or in payment for property acquired or for any of the purposes of the Corporation and to secure payment of any such obligation by mortgage, pledge, deed, indenture, agreement, or other instrument of trust, or by any other lien upon, assignment of, or agreement in regard to all or any part of the property, rights, or privileges of the Corporation.

3) To invest and reinvest its funds in such mortgages, bonds, shares of preferred and common stock, and any other securities of any kind whatsoever, and property, real, personal, or mixed, tangible, or intangible, all as our Board shall seem advisable and as may be permitted by law.

4) To provide consulting and advisory services related to any and all of the Corporations charitable and educational purposes to private businesses, non-profit organizations, and government agencies on a fee basis.

5) To engage in the activity of operating worker-owned and democratically operated community-wealth business ventures for the purposes of:

a) providing job training, employment, and managerial development opportunities to economically distressed or disadvantaged individuals,

b) incubating such enterprises during start-up stages until such time as they may opt to incorporate as a private corporation, and

c) furthering sustainable economic development in the community.

6) To engage in any and all other activities which will directly or indirectly improve the welfare and economic conditions of said residents and groups.

7) To exercise all other rights and powers conferred upon corporations under the California Nonprofit Corporation Law; provided, however, that the Corporation shall not engage in any activities or exercise any powers, including those specifically mentioned herein, that are not in furtherance of the specific and primary charitable and educational purposes of the Corporation.

8) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any of or all the purposes of which the Corporation is organized.

(C) All of the foregoing purposes and powers shall be exercised exclusively for charitable and educational purposes in such manner that the Corporation shall qualify as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as it is currently and shall thereafter be in force and effect.

The purpose of the corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which a corporation may be organized under the General Corporation Law of California other than the banking business, trust company business or the practice of a profession permitted to be incorporated by the California Corporations Code.
