Note: Members can be principal/senior author on only ONE poster per category.

The Entry Ticket: Abstract Requirements

- * Length: 150 – 350 words.
- Format: No all-caps. Scientific names (botanical) must be italicized.
- Structure:
  1. Main objective/rationale
  2. Methods used
  3. Results or products
  4. Raw conclusions on implications

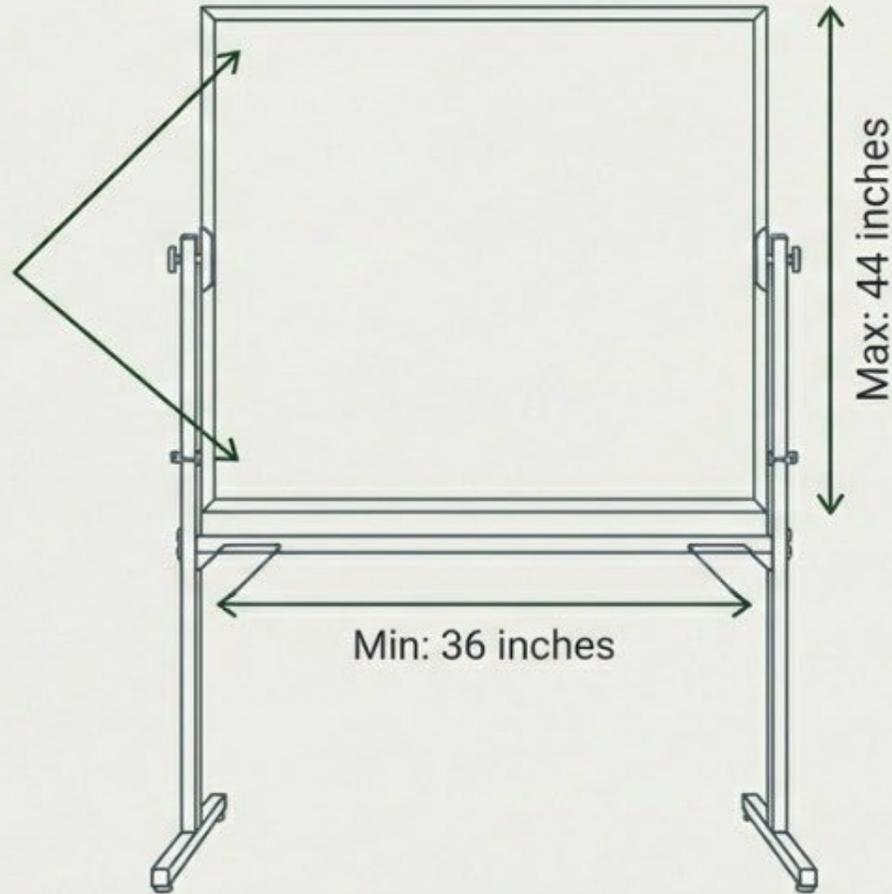

The diagram illustrates the structure of an abstract entry ticket as a stack of papers. The top section is a header area with a horizontal line. Below it are four distinct sections, each with a yellow background and a white border. Each section contains an icon on the left and a title followed by three horizontal lines for text entry. The sections are: 1. 'Main objective/rationale' with a gear icon; 2. 'Methods used' with a flask icon; 3. 'Results or products' with a magnifying glass icon; and 4. 'Raw conclusions on implications' with a thought bubble icon.

Warning: Abstracts are reviewed for conformity; non-compliant entries will not be accepted.

The Canvas: Physical Specifications

Mounting: Pushpins required. Author must provide 10–12 pins.

Note

Do not prepare as a manuscript. Use tables and figures; limit verbiage.

Typography & Readability Stats

60 Point Font

Minimum for TITLE
(Sans Serif: Arial, Calibri)

48 Point Font

24 Point Font

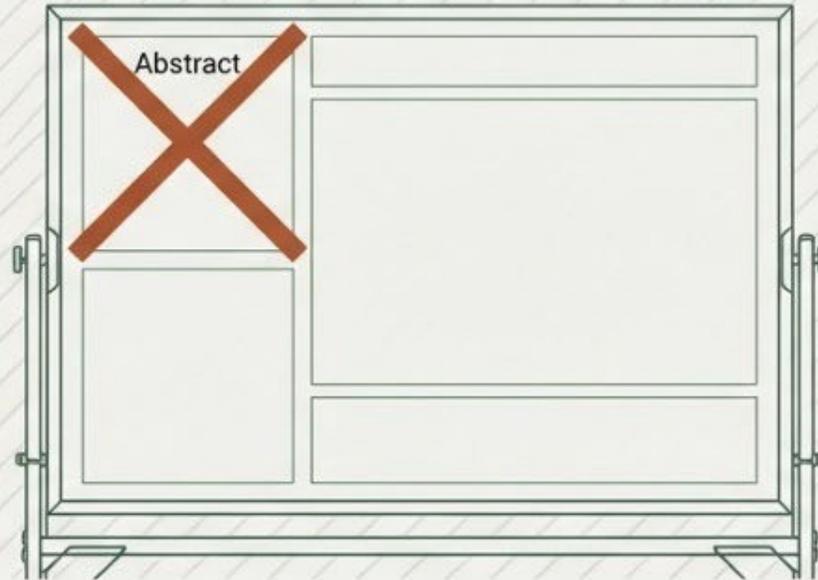

Range for BODY
TEXT &
ILLUSTRATIONS

Rule of Thumb:

No more than two
different typefaces.
Ensure they are easy to read.

CRITICAL RULE CHANGE

The abstract is NO LONGER included on the physical poster display.

The abstract is for application and publication only. Do not print it on your board.

What Replaces the Abstract?

Header & Layout Requirements

[Program Title]

[Author Name]

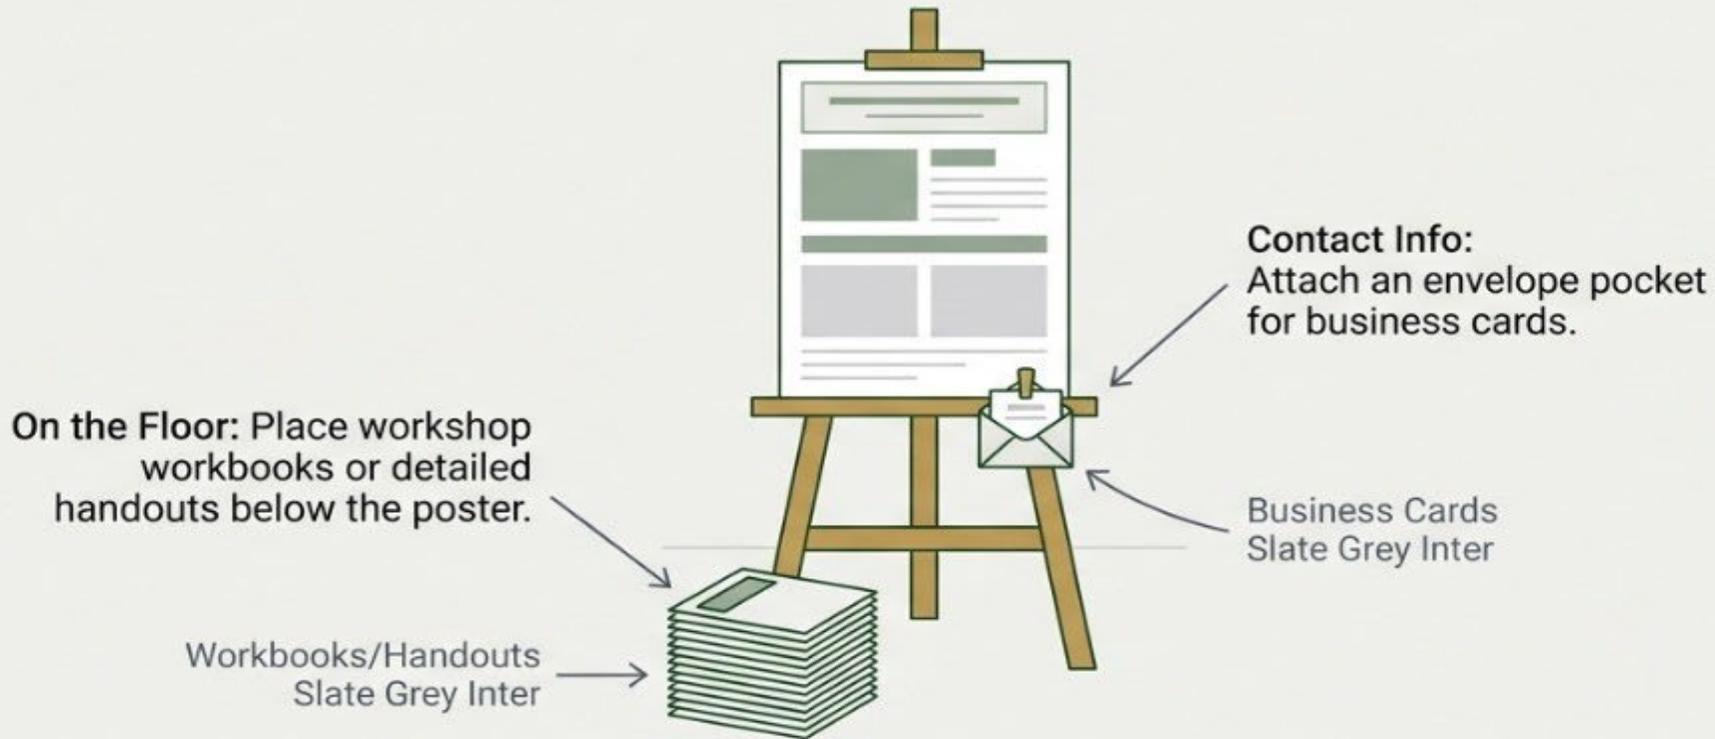

[Institution Affiliation]

[Email Address]

Placement:
Must appear at the very top.

Style:
Simple sans
serif typeface.

Handling Supplemental Materials

“Details can be shared on a handout. Successful posters do not crowd the information.”

How You Will Be Judged

The 10-Second Rule

Initial impression is key.
Message must be simple and clear.

The 3-Foot Rule

Text and figures must be legible from three feet away.

Center of Interest

Is there a clear focal point
to introduce the message?

Retention

Can the viewer retain 1 to 3 main themes?

Visual Strategy for High Scores

Flow: Use contrasting colors to lead the viewer's eye.

Balance: Logical order with figures and photos integrated.

Media: Use photographs, illustrations, charts, or graphs.

Attraction: Does the poster visually attract the reader?

Avoid Disqualification

Double Dipping

Lead authors submitting more than one poster in the SAME category will have all posters disqualified.

Recycling

No poster or abstract presented at any previous NACAA AM/PIC is allowed.

Abstract Errors

Rejection by the Professional Excellence Committee based on title/abstract evaluation is final.
