B.C. Bishops' appeal in support of
Healing & Reconciliation

Thank you for supporting the Diocesan Annual Appeal – Called Together and the B.C. Bishops' appeal in support of Healing and Reconciliation.

Although the two appeals are different, they share one goal. Called Together is an opportunity for the entire diocese to support our small parishes, missions and programs.
 The Healing and Reconciliation appeal aims to support reconciliation among indigenous and non-indigenous peoples.

Called Together has a goal of $200,000 this year. The Healing and Reconciliation appeal does not have a target, but looks to the generosity of everyone to make a meaningful contribution to promote this important work. In prior years, the diocese has tried to meet this need through programs such as Returning to Spirit, the Rose Prince Pilgrimage and through the work of our priests and religious involved in indigenous ministry.

We are able to accept your tax-deductible contributions in many different ways: by cheque, Interac eTransfer, pre-authorized debit from your bank account, credit card, or online donation at Canada Helps.

Please email us at appeal@pgdiocese.bc.ca or call 250-964-4424 if you need any assistance.

Thank you for your support.

A message from the Bishop

Where the funds go

The COVID-19 pandemic that disrupted our lives on so many levels shows some signs of winding down, but its effects are far from over. Parish and mission communities are still very much in recovery mode. These times remind us how much we depend on each other to ensure our mission as Catholics can continue.

It was wonderful to see that many parishes that surpassed their Appeal goal last year chose to forego their rebate and asked that the funds be given to small parishes and missions that were in need. This is a true example of Christian stewardship: giving back to God out of gratitude for His blessings.

This year's parish goals for the Appeal remain at a much-reduced level. As in last year, this is to ensure that the basic needs of smaller faith communities and missions are met, and that diocesan support can be maintained for things like youth and young adult ministry and tuition support for the neediest families in our schools.

Something that has changed from last year's Appeal is the news about graves at some residential school sites.

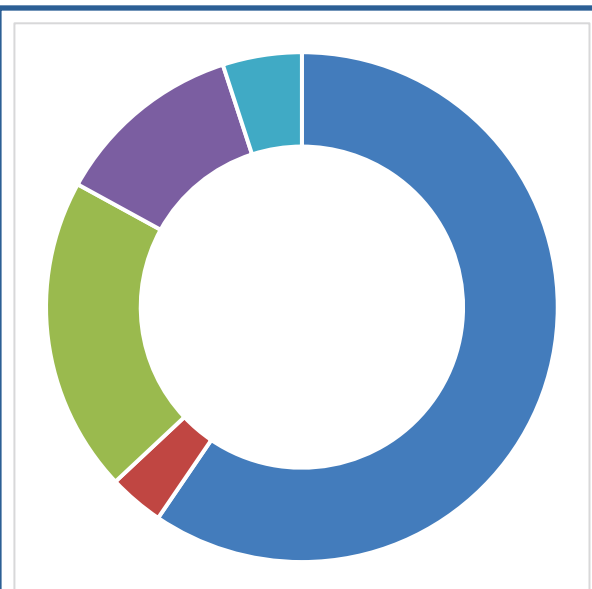

This tragic news reopened many wounds and reminds us that healing and reconciliation within indigenous communities and with the wider Canadian society is a still unfinished work. To help advance that agenda, the bishops of BC agreed that each diocese would undertake to raise funds in a Fall campaign in support of reconciliation efforts. Ongoing consultation with aboriginal persons will help to determine how the proceeds should be used.

This extraordinary fundraising will run parallel to the annual diocesan Appeal to take advantage of the infrastructure already in place to receive donations. This year's Appeal pledge form will allow you to support the regular Appeal and/or the reconciliation fund. Thank you for participating in these diocesan efforts to serve the mission entrusted to us by Christ.

"Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver" (2 Cor. 9:7).

Most Reverend Stephen Jensen

Small Community Parishes & Missions $119,000

We continue to put additional funds into small parishes and missions as they continue to confront funding challenges.

Evangelization & Formation $7,000

Evangelization & Formation receives $7,000 to maintain essential services and facilities.

Outreach $10,000

Outreach funds go to some of the most vulnerable in our communities.

Youth, Camps & Young Adults $40,000

These funds will be used to maintain existing facilities and help with youth and young adult programs.

Catholic Independent Schools $24,000

Funds for CIS go to assisting in cost reduction and student support.
