Meetings are the second Monday of most months from 7pm until....

UCBA is currently meeting on Zoom
(until further notice)

The Ulster County Beekeepers' Association (UCBA) is a beekeepers' association based in the Hudson Valley.

UCBA provides valuable support for the wellbeing of honeybees and their keepers, through networking and presentational meetings for veteran beekeepers and novice beekeepers alike. Our focus is helping to nurture beekeepers who nurture their bees.

Advocacy and public education are part of UCBA's mission to raise the awareness of the value of honeybees and the need to protect them against pesticides, as well as encourage beekeeping and good forage in our area.

Sharing our beekeeping experiences is invaluable as we go forward in this fragile environment.
