

Adam got his start in comedy with Armed Services Arts Partnership back in 2018 and has been hittin' in person and virtual stages across the country ever since.

He's been North American his whole life- born in Canada and relocated to the U.S. as a teen. He then went on to serve in the U.S. Army after a little event called 9/11.

He tried to make it as a foot model but got denied for ugly toes. So, he stepped on an I.E.D to open himself to a world of possibilities, like insane phantom limb pain, awkward first dates, and endless jokes about his crazy new life.

Now he has...#comedylegs. He's 99% dishwasher safe, so if you're looking for a clean show just request that his jokes come out sparkling.
