Make-up Lesson Policy

In case of illness, you must notify me by telephone, text, or email at least 3 hours prior to your lesson. If possible, an alternate time will be arranged for the same week or an additional time arranged between our schedules. There is no tuition reduction or refund when make-up lessons cannot be re-scheduled. I am, however, very flexible with occasional requests to change lesson times as I may ask the same of you due to university and family obligations. Tuition for the academic year is based on 32 lessons over a 33 week period plus recitals, festivals, theory tests, lesson preparations and music selections throughout the year. Since an extra week is built into the calendar, I reserve the right to cancel a lesson during the year due to university or family responsibilities.
