

Cape Town Surf School conducts all of our surfing lessons in a professional and respectful manner, boasting with over 10 years of surf school experience.

Not all of our surf coaches are accredited on paper but are highly skilled in what they do and have done a lot of training to get to where they are today. We teach based off passion and from knowledge gained from professional accredited surf coach course training manuals. Some of us wrote exams to gain knowledge on how to conduct all our surfing lessons in a safe and correct method. We have hundreds of hours' worth of practical experience gracing the South African shores. Don't worry dude, we got you! Surfing is like riding a bicycle and we will teach you the basics
