

City of North Las Vegas

Our City. Our Vision. Our Path to Prosperity

A vision for change

“North Las Vegas is the best community in the world in which to do business. Our one-stop approach getting projects approved, permitted and built; the massive amount of land we have available for development; our skilled and motivated workforce; and our state’s business-friendly tax climate combine to make investment a wine for any company, small or large”.

-Mayor

John Lee

The City of North Las Vegas is a full-service municipality, providing recreational amenities, police, fire protection, water and wastewater services. The city is proud of its longstanding tradition of maintaining a business friendly and responsive atmosphere. North Las Vegas is taking of business, paving the way to become a premier site for large manufacturing, green sustainable industries, high technology, healthcare, research, retail and commercial businesses. The City also fosters a positive environment for new small businesses and entrepreneurial endeavors.

North Las Vegas boasts proximity to major transportation corridors, railways and two air ports. This gives North Las Vegas businesses easy access to large and growing markets across the Western United States, including California, Arizona and Utah. This desirable access is critical for cultivating key industries for manufacturing, distribution and supporting development that defines a community and encourages intelligent growth for the future.

The excellent leadership driving the vision at North Las Vegas has earned us the accolades of being one of the top cities to do business in. The economic & business Development division aligns business and community initiatives that promote the standard of living and economic health of our city by developing human capital, critical infrastructure, regional competitiveness and business growth.

Priority projects include; Apex Industrial Park, the Job Creation Zones that encompass the Healthcare and Wellness Village, the North Beltway Industrial Park and revitalizing the Urban core. Fifty percent of the undeveloped land resides in North Las Vegas, giving the City a major competitive edge and offering many opportunities for development and investment.

Downtown Gateway

The North Las Vegas Redevelopment Agency is a governmental organization that was created in November 1990 by the City of North Las Vegas to help improve the quality of life for all who live, work, and play within the Downtown Redevelopment Area. The agency supports the revitalization of under used properties and encourages the creation of new commercial and retail redevelopment opportunities. The agency has supported the development of new senior/affordable housing, strengthening of older downtown residential neighborhoods and has provided financing for improvements to public facilities and infrastructure.

Currently, the downtown redevelopment is undergoing conceptual plans to transform the 70-year-old city, with visions of new apartments and housing options, community amenities, shops and restaurants lined by wide sidewalks creating a pedestrian-friendly urban core. The targeted transformation area dubbed Like Mead Village West, encompasses approximately 160 areas in an area bound by Interstate 15, Las Vegas Boulevard, Tonopah Avenue and Judson Avenue.

Tule Springs National Monument &

Northern Rim Development

America's newest national monument is located in North Las Vegas within 30 minutes of the neon lights. The 22,650-acre park was declared a national monument on December 19, 2014 to preserve and protect the fossil beds of the Ice Age. Mammoths, lions and camels once roamed along wetlands from 200,000 to 3,000 years ago.

Just below the national park sits approximately 2700 acres of two new master planned developments; Park Highlands West and The Villages of Tule Springs East. The area will encompass about 10,000 new homes starting upwards of the $200,000, new parks, schools and commercial centers. The master planned developments will also include semi and custom lots that overlook the protected national park.

Medical Services and Research Campus

The Tule Springs land bill that declared the national monument granted North Las Vegas 645 acres in total for a designated job creation zone. The land is divided up in two parcels of 150 acres and 495 acres. The 150 acres sits next to the crown jewel of the Veteran's Affairs (VA) Hospital and is being pre-planned for a Medical Services and Research Campus. From multi-facet, innovative technologies to light industrial to medical services, office, amenities and the cultivation of intellectual capital to create a world class ecosystem. The 495 acres located just to the north across the 215 Beltway will generate large-scale complimentary manufacturing and research development for new job growth in new industries.

"From Bigelow, Hyperloop to Faraday Future, North Las Vegas is home to some of the most innovative companies in the world for a reason: It is easy and profitable to do business here, thanks to our business-friendly culture, reasonable priced real estate, close proximity to major transportation hubs, favorable utility costs and access to raw materials and supplies."

A path to prosperity

North Beltway Industrial Park

This area east of the Interstate 15 and the 215 Belt way is approximately 900 acres of undeveloped land. Planned infrastructure will bring a $24 million sewer project to this area along with road improvements of $8.6 million to open up the Tropical and 215 Belt way Interchange. There is water, power and some rail access already serving this area. The area is already home to existing distribution and warehouse Facilities with new distribution and fulfillment centers planned on 110 acres that will equal more than 1 million square feet.

Apex Industrial Park

The Apex Industrial Park is home to Faraday Future’s new 3 million square foot electric car plant and Hyperloop-one, a company that is changing the way transportation happens across the globe. The park is designed for heavy and light industrial, distribution and large-scale job creators. There are active industrial plants, energy and solar farms, indoor agriculture and planned amenities such as hotel, food and entertainment to serve the employees in the park and travelers along the Interstate.

Apex is located approximately 20 minutes from city hall in North Las Vegas this industrial area has more than 18.000 acres with approximately, 8.00-acres available with contiguous lots ranging from 5 to 1.500 acre parcels. It has excellent access to U.S Highway 93, Union Railroad and Interstate 15.

4400 Horse Drive
80 Acres
Established: 1991

Features:

- Miniature Aircraft flying field
- UNR/ Cooperative Extension Experimental Garden
- Shade Structure
- Parking lot
- Portable toilet

Willie McCool Regional Park is the most remote site in our parks system. Surrounded by open desert, the facility is used as both a model airplane flying field and a trail nursery, making it truly unique place. Residents fly model airplanes every day of the week, with special meets and computations sponsored by various clubs and organizations. At the other end of the park, the University of Nevada at Reno and Cooperative Extension Service have established an experimental garden to test water usage and the adaptability of non-native plants to our harsh desert climate. Willie McCool Regional Park is large, with plenty of land remaining open for other uses.

- Walking/ jogging trail
- Gazebo
- Public restrooms
- Desert landscaping
- Off-street parking

Theron H. Goynes Park is known throughout North Las Vegas for its lighted baseball diamond, installed to meet the needs of the City's Little League team. The facility is top rate and has received positive feedback from residents. The Park is also known for its group shelter, which is in frequent demand, as a setting for birthday parties and family outings. Along with the group shelter, there are a number of individual shaded picnic pads scattered throughout the site. The park's walking trail, which is slightly longer than a half mile in length, is lighted, allowing residents to exercise in the cool evening hours. All of these features are encircled by native planed life and a simulated desert wash, providing a dramatic contrast to the green lawn of the baseball diamond.

Monte Vista Park

4911 Scott Robinson Boulevard

5 Acres

Established: 1990

Features:

- Two age-group play equipment areas
- Picnic pads
- Walking/ jogging track
- Fitness station
- Open Space

Monte Vista Park, located in one of the newer sections of North Las Vegas, is surrounded by single-family dwellings. The site features a large play area, including swings, four covered picnic pads, and a running track that is approximately a quarter mile in length. Exercise stations and benches are set at several points along the track. The rolling terrain of this park does not keep residents from a friendly game of football or soccer, and the large open field provides a pleasant space for children to run and play.

3.48 Acres
Established: 1965

Features:

- Two unlighted baseball diamonds
- Picnic areas
- Shade shelter
- Horseshoe pits
- Open space
- Public restrooms
- Off-site parking

Hebert Park is dedicated to the memory of First Lieutenant Raynor L. Hebert of Port Arthur, Texas. On May 13th, 1964, a student pilot at Nellis Air Force Base, sacrificed his own life in order to spare the lives of hundreds of children at Lincoln School. Lieutenant Hebert chose to ride his plane down in an attempt to guide the disabled aircraft into an uninhabited area rather than ejecting at a safe altitude. His untimely death remains a monument to the heroic self-sacrifice of our U.S. Air force airmen. Herbert Park is located on the edge of the City's muter section, and serves a neighborhood of single-family dwellings. The site is shared with neighboring Lincoln Elementary school, where the school district has recently installed new play equipment. As part of North Las Vegas Mature Parks Project, the Herbert facility was renovated in 2001 and now features a new pathway with replanted trees and shrubbery. The site also includes one group picnic shelter, several smaller picnic pads, two Little League baseball diamonds, and a large open space.
