Bridgeton High School Garden Project

The Bridgeton Rotary Club meeting on Nov. 1 featured a presentation by Bill Waterman of Bridgeton High School and Carl Dolente, Principal regarding the school's garden project. It will provide a place for students who earn the privilege, to enjoy eating and spending part of their lunch periods in the outdoor, landscaped courtyard. It will be in a secure area in the middle of school, just outside of the library. They said the community may help provide materials and money to support this project. They also said that school spirit and pride is high and students and teachers are striving for excellence every day.

NOTE: No Rotary lunch meeting on Nov. 15 due to tree lighting and reception and no Rotary lunch meeting on Nov. 22, Thanksgiving Day.

Looking Ahead and Rotary Minutes

Nov. 15, 2018 – Rotary Leads Community Tree Lighting, Downtown Bridgeton Park. Refreshments and fellowship follows the lighting at Whibco. This takes the place of the regular luncheon.

You are invited, along with your family and friends, to the Greater Bridgeton Rotary Club's Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony and Reception November 15, 2018 (Yes...we are getting started a little early this year!) 6:00 PM at the Bridgeton Pocket Park, Corner of Commerce and Laurel St., Bridgeton NJ. This annual tradition includes a visit from Santa, carols, a reading of the "The Night Before Christmas," and more. Bring new socks, gloves, and winter hats for the homeless and less fortunate. A free reception to follow the tree lighting, sponsored by Whibco, Inc.

You are also invited to come and help decorate the tree on Tuesday, November 13th at 3:00 PM. You can bring an ornament for the tree representing you, your family, your business, and/or your organization/school.
