March 7, 2019: Expungement in New Jersey

When the Bridgeton Rotary Club meets on March 7 at Green Olive Restaurant in Hopewell, Vanessa Cardwell from the NJ Attorney General's Office will talk about expungement in New Jersey. She will be presented by Merry Woodruff whose "Equal Justice Committee" has been following and publicizing the recent court reforms. A law that went into effect Oct. 1 in NJ has expanded the number of people who can get their criminal records scrubbed clean. This could be a life-changing development for someone with an old criminal history that keeps coming back to haunt them when applying for employment or seeking to rent an apartment.

Greeter: Alan Woodruff; Prayer: Tony Stanzione; Sgt.-at-Arms: Peter Koza

Feb. 28, 2019: CompleteCare Family Health Foundation

On Feb. 28, the Bridgeton Rotary Club welcomed Karla Laws, Foundation Director from CompleteCare Family Health Foundation as speaker. She described the mission and vision of the foundation and all of the programs of CompleteCare that the foundation raises money for. She indicated that although she and her family have not been in the area very long, she has come to love the greater Cumberland area and looks forward to forming many lasting relationships.

She also expressed an interest in being sponsored by a Rotarian to come into our club as a member.

NOTE: Rotary Club Newspaper Guide 2019-20 will be published on April 18.
