MAY 6: President of Rowan College of South Jersey

The Bridgeton Rotary Club met in-person including lunch at the Green Olive Restaurant in Hopewell on May 6 and with members participating via Zoom. The program featured Dr. Frederick Keating, President of Rowan College South Jersey. He talked about the expansion of RCSJ Cumberland Campus educational services to the ALMS Center in Bridgeton to serve the city and Western Cumberland.

He highlighted the medical education opportunities being expanded at the Vineland campus. He stressed the college will be in the community and wants to be a force to improve quality of life in the region.

ROTARY CLUB MINUTES & HISTORY

Rotary Club Meeting – May 20, 12:10 PM - Rotarians Pres. Mark Wiley and Tony Stanzione will lead a celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Club's first meeting in 1920, which took place on May 25, 1921 at the Cohanzick Country Club. Hybrid/In-person/Zoom meeting at Green Olive. Greeter: Sandy Taylor; Prayer: Jon Cummings; Sgt.-at-Arms: Romaine Street.

Other key dates to celebrate our Club's 100th anniversary include Sept. 1, 1920 when the Club Charter was approved, and when the Charter presentation dinner was celebrated on January 28, 1922 at the Bridgeton Armory.

Rotary Club Golf Tournament on May 19 is the main Club fundraiser for the year. We ask every Club member to support this event in some way. Ask golfers you know to register, ask businesses you do business with to be a sponsor, and make your own donation. Carolyn Heckman reports that thanks to club and community support, it looks like it will be highly successful.
