June 13, 2019: Rotary Heard About the National Federation of Independent Business

On June 13, 2019, Bridgeton Rotarians and guests heard about the National Federation of Independent Business from its New Jersey representative Laurie Ehibeck. She explained the focus and purpose of the organization and how its works on behalf of small, independent business members across the country. She highlighted the challenges she faces and that of the business community in New Jersey with its reputation as an anti-business state. She cited higher minimum wages, required sick time, paid family leave and high taxes as some of the things they have opposed on behalf of its membership.

Dave Wilson and Gary Simmerman with Laurie Ehibeck, our speaker from Rotary Club scholarship recipient Yessenia Arellano of BHS tells the Club why she loves where she lives. Her positive approach and determination to make things better is a lesson for all of us who live and work in this area.
