Sept. 5, 2019: Flavia Highlighted Nail House Restoration

The Bridgeton Rotary Club welcomed Flavia Ayala of (C.H.A.B.A.) to the Sept. 5 meeting and she talked about the restoration of the Nail House in Bridgeton City Park. The organization needs donations from the community to raise matching funds a grant they received from the Historic Trust. Flavia explained the historical importance of the Nail House and the industrial development history of Bridgeton and of America. She sees this building as a place to interpret the significant place Bridgeton holds in America's industrial history. For more information or to donate call (856) 369-1300.

Bridge Project Nearing Completion ... Nearing $25,000 Goal

Bruce Riley reports that the park bridges are being installed and a celebration is being planned for Sept. 19 Rotary / Chamber joint meeting in the park. Carolyn Heckman said the Club and Chamber are getting close to the $25,000 fundraising goal. Donations are still needed.
