NOV. 19: NO ROTARY LUNCH MEETING. COME TO THE DOWNTOWN TREE AND CANDLE LIGHTING INSTEAD!

Thanks to those who came out and helped decorate the tree.

By Robin Weinstein

The Bridgeton Rotary Club presents the Bridgeton Tree and Candle Lighting Ceremony on Thursday, November 19, 2020 at 6:00 PM in the park located at the corner of Commerce and Laurel Streets in downtown Bridgeton. We will have a socially-distant ceremony with the city officials as we light the tree. I will also have candles for us to have a candle lighting ceremony to accompany the tree lighting--it is a different kind of year and calls for a different type of ceremony. Please wear a mask to this event. All Rotarians, families, friends, and the public are invited. There will not be a gathering after the event this year due to Covid-19 precautions.

NOV. 26: NO ROTARY CLUB MEETING

NOV. 12: KEVIN DOREMUS TALKED ABOUT HURRICANE HUNTERS

The speaker at the Rotary Club In-Person and Zoom meeting on Nov. 12 at Green Olive and via Zoom was Burt Doremus' grandson, Kevin Doremus, who will spoke to our group via Zoom. Kevin, a pilot with NOAA, stationed in Florida, flies into hurricanes. He explained the service and took questions. Great presentation.
