AUG. 6: ZOOM Meeting with Paul Halley

As of the time of publishing this bulletin, Paul Halley will talk about AMAC (Association of Mature American Citizens) – The Conservative Alternative. Paul Halley is the South Jersey representative for AMAC. That is an alternative program to a scheduled to talk about Racism in South Jersey as that speaker may not be able to attend this week.

Greeter: Dave Elwell; Prayer: Robin Weinstein; Sgt.-at-Arms: Gladwyn Baptist

JULY 30: Face to Face Meeting at Piney Point in Bridgeton City Park

Rotarians met face to face, with lots of social distancing and a nice breeze on July 30 at Piney Point. The meeting included social time, and updates from Rotary committees. Thanks to Joe Stanger for helping with the facilities for this meeting.

Congratulations to Valerie James Kemp, who was selected as a new Rotary Director overseeing youth services. She replaces Steven Paul, who had left the Club. Thanks to Steve for his service.

Our congratulations to Austin Gould for recognition as a Cumberland County Legend at the Legends Celebration presented by and benefiting CompleteCare Family Health Foundation. He was honored with Dr. Thomas Dwyer, and the Trout Family. Use this link to see the Legends events on You Tube: <https://youtu.be/LI898p4yZzc> .
