Club #5938 / District 7505 / Bridgeton, NJ

Club welcomes new Club President Robin Wood at changeover dinner on June 24.

Robin Wood Is Welcomed as New Club President for 2021-2022

Bridgeton Rotary Club entered its 101st year of service to the Bridgeton area when it celebrated the traditional Rotary changeover meeting on June 24 at the Green Olive Restaurant in Hopewell.

Rotary District 7505 Governor May Montag-McMurray installed the new officers for the July 1 to June 30. In addition to Robin, the following officers were installed: Jon Cummings, President Elect; John Hitchner, Vice President; Deborah Boykin Greenberg, Secretary, and Roy Spoltore, Treasurer. Serving as directors in 2021-2022 are Valerie James Kemp, Paul Halley, Harry Paraison, Romaine Street, and Mark Wiley.

Robin thanked outgoing President Mark Wiley for his leadership through this difficult past year. "I am honored to serve as the club president. I believe in Rotary and its mission of service, always looking for ways to help those in need and to make our community better," said Robin.

She introduced the new Rotary International theme banner for 2021-22: "serve to change lives."

Mark Wiley, outgoing President, thanked officers, directors and other club members who helped lead the club. He thanked outgoing Secretary Carolyn Heckman for a remarkable record of club service. He also thanked outgoing Treasurer Tony Buono, who served as treasurer for several years, especially through this year with personal and family health issues.

Each member was given a notebook with a pen, and a cover with a cell phone storage pocket.
