July 21 Rotary Club Meeting: Bridgeton Library

The Bridgeton Rotary Club held its weekly meeting at the Green Olive Restaurant in Hopewell on July 21. at 12:10 PM. Bridgeton Public Library representatives Carol Gurzo, and Laurie Ortiz, Library Director talked to the Club about the programs, services, of the library. They pointed out the library's need for financial and volunteer help for the non-profit public library. The Friends of the Library support and promote the Bridgeton Library. While there are special benefits to being a friend, everyone benefits from a great library! By joining the Friends, you can help the library expand its programs and services, making it a great cultural and educational center for the entire community. Fundraisers and projects of the Friends include Used Book Sale, Jewelry Sale, Plant and Book Sale, Children's Programs, and more. To join the Friends of the Library, to volunteer to help the library, to make donations, and for information, call 856-451-2620, send email to Bpl@bridgetonlibrary.org, or visit www.bridgetonlibrary.org.
