President Robin Wood talks about goals for 2021-2022 at the July 1 meeting.

Robin Wood Sets Goals as New Club President for 2021-2022

Club President Robin Wood spoke to the club members at the July 1 meeting about what she would like to accomplish for the club and community in the new Rotary year. Working with her team of officers Jon Cummings, President Elect; John Hitchner, Vice President; Deborah Boykin Greenberg, Secretary, and Roy Spoltore, Treasurer, directors Valerie James Kemp, Paul Halley, Harry Paraison, Romaine Street, and Mark Wiley, and all club members, she would like to see a boost in membership, asking each member to invite new members to the Club.

In addition to the 100th anniversary events and the mural project, Robin pointed out the gem the community has in the Bridgeton City Park and Cohan-zick Zoo. She again expressed how honored she is to serve as the club president. "I believe in Rotary and its mission of service, always looking for ways to help those in need and to make our community better," said Robin.
