May 12th Rotary Club: Child and Adult Psychiatrist Talks of His / His Family's Service

The Bridgeton Rotary Club met at the Green Olive Restaurant in Hopewell on May 12. Dr. Richard Ernst was the speaker.

He is a psychiatrist, double board-certified in Adult Psychiatry and Child & Adolescent Psychiatry. He is a Bridgeton native, working for many years at Century Bakery when it was owned by his family. He told his story and that of his family in service to Jesus Christ in Thailand where he is a volunteer in his field serving the psychological needs of other missionaries working in that country.

Bob Woodruff and Rotary VP Jon Cummings enjoy Bob's announcements of May birthdays and Rotarian anniversaries of joining the Club.

Rich Ernst talks at the Rotary Club's May 5 meeting about his volunteer service to support the spreading of the Good News of Christ to people.
