Our Club Welcomed Our Rotary District Governor at the Oct. 21st Meeting

The Bridgeton Rotary Club met at Terra Nonno Winery in Rosenhayn on Oct. 21 and we welcomed our District Governor Chuck Watson. He attended with his wife Mary, and with Melanie Druziako, Assistant Governor Area 10.

A beautiful warm and breezy fall afternoon served as a backdrop for the meeting overlooking the vineyards and farmlands surrounding the winery. Gov. Watson talked about his history in Rotary and offered his ideas on what the Bridgeton Club could do to recover after the COVID-19 pandemic slowed progress and disrupted club activities. He suggested following the "climb, pause, pull" theme of the District for this Rotary year. Climb means to take steps to reach new heights. Pause to rest, restore, and enjoy some fun and fellowship and to note what your club has achieved. Then reach and pull others up with you as your journey continues.
