JUNE 25: ROTARY YEAR ENDS AS MARK WILEY BECOMES THE NEW PRESIDENT

The annual changeover meeting was held at the home of Joe Stanger on Sunset Lake in Upper Deerfield. We got to see fellow Rotarians in person for the first time in many weeks.

Carolyn King completed her year as President. She thanked everyone and presented Rotary socks to everyone with the Wiley and the officers and directors for the new Rotary year were sworn in. Thank you to Joe and his family for hosting the meeting.

Carolyn wrote a parting note to the club as her year as President ended. Here is an excerpt from the note.

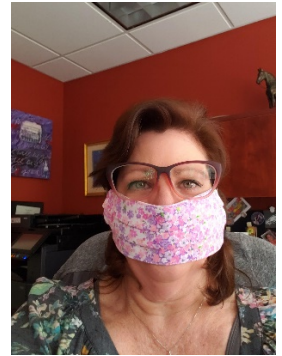

"We connected in 2019-2020 with our community by way of our talents, our generosity, and our actions. Let us look forward to opening the doors to new opportunities for all – making Bridgeton Rotary's 100th year our best yet."
